Dakota ASSETS

<http://dakotaassets.tie.net>

A Partnership between TIE (Technology & Innovation in Education), Black Hills State University, South Dakota Department of Education, Oglala Lakota College, Sinte Gleska University, and South Dakota Teach for America

Dakota ASSETS is funded by the U.S. Department of Education to find good people who want to make a difference by becoming teachers in high need schools in South Dakota. Do you know such a person?

Good candidates include:

- Someone who is currently working in a school as a paraprofessional or
- A person with a bachelor's degree who wants to become a teacher or
- A recent college graduate with high aspirations

If you know of a good candidate, please fill out this form, and send it to them! If they enroll in one of our accredited teacher certification programs, we'll reward YOU with $100.00 when we award them a scholarship! Please note: Their scholarship award is conditional on their commitment to teach in a high need school upon completion of their teacher certification. Please visit our website for further information.

Note to candidate:

Please visit our website and consider making a difference by becoming a teacher in a high need school! Please keep this form, and we'll pay your "finder" $100.00 when you sign up for a scholarship to help defray your tuition, transportation, child-care, and other related costs. The award of the scholarship is conditional upon your commitment to teach in a high need school.
